Our Solution

BAMSS is proud to be an innovative company. We test and implement new technologies as they are developed and brought to market by our major vendors. We pride ourselves in being early adopters of such technologies to ensure we pave the way for the future of our industry.

Our Technical Services Manager ensures we have the best engineering solutions and co-ordinates the on-site tech teams for all projects. He ensures that all technicians are fully trained and are capable of every aspect of complex installations and integrations.

Our Project Manager ensures that the entire project is completed according to the specific requirements of the client within the timeframe and with the highest quality finish that our clients expect. He will coordinate between the Builder, the BAMSS team and the client to streamline the installation/commissioning process.

We understand the importance of customer service and after sales support. BAMSS created SMARTCARE, our internal program to ensure exceptional customer support. This provides us with a testing and commissioning process that has been designed around the highest industry standards.

BAMSS have the expertise, we have the support of all of our suppliers, we have the experience and we believe we can provide the best outcome for our clients.
